The Plymouth Republican.

Church and society announcements, marriage

Local potices, in body type, to cents per line, fire!

NUMBER 30. Job Printing on the most favorable terms nsertion; second insertion 5 cents.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

T. A. BORTON, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON Office in Post Office Block. Dwelling on East Sid South Michigan Street,

PLYMOUTH, INDIANA. Dr. J. M. JENNINGS.

DHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. office with Dr. N. Shorman over Lauer's Store, on Michigan street, Plymouth, Ind. Residence on Center street, opposite Catholic church. bm not AMASA JOHNSO

TTORNEY AT LAW. Prompt attention given to collections, settlement of decements' estates

P O. JONES. Atterneyat Law & Notary Public. Prompt attention given to all claims and col-ections left in his care. Office in corner of Sear's brick block Plymouth Ind.

C. H. REEVE, TTORNEY AT LAW. Located in 1846. ality. Buys and sells real estate on commis-tion. Insures lives and property in A. 1 com-banes. Destrable real estate for sale in the sitr and adjoining. Nov1-75

DR I. BOWER. DHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, WILL L pleased to receive patients at his office, No. 31 Michigan street, where he may be found at all times, except when professional-ly absent, his residence being at the same

J. O., S. D. & J. W. PARKS, TTORNEYS AT LAW, Notaries Public and Authorized War Claim Agents; Offices at ourbon and Plymouth, Indiana, Especial stention given to the settlement of decedents states, Convoyancing, and the collection of olders Claims for Pensions; will attend

G. R. CHANEY A TTORNEY AT LAW. Will practice in all the courts in the state. Office in Wheeler's block, over Becker & Wolf's dry goods store, Plymouth, angl-lyr

A TTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW. Room No. 8.

JOHN S. BENDER. ATTORNEY AT LAW. AND NOTARY PUBLIC, ENLEGRY BLOCK. - - - - PLYMOUTH, IND Repecial attention given to the settlement of es-ates, and partition of lands; also the collection of claims and foreclosure of mortgages. Remittances

A. C. & A. B. CAPRON, Attorneys & Counse lors AT LAW REAL ESTATE ACENTS. FFICE-A. L. WHEELER'S BLOCK.

PLYOUTH, IND. DR. J. M. CONFER.

Offers bis Professional Services At the same office, Gver P & Chapman's Drug Store

JOHN C. KUHN,

LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S Fine Boot and Shoemaker, a ses the best stock to be obtained, guarantees easy fit, and charges reasonable rates.

R R; P A I R I N G Neatly done on short notice. Satisfaction given in all respects. Room No. 2, Postoffice block, PLYMOUTH, IND j23m

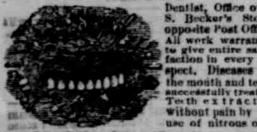

Wagons and Buggles for Sale Cheap at

MAX RUGE'S! NOME MANUFACTURED

WAGONS for $50

MAX RUCE DENTISTS

F. M. BURKET.

Bourben Tuesday and Wednesday of Each Week

DURR

DENTIST! Office over Parks Bros.' Law Office, Gano Street.

Plymouth, Ind.

DR. A. C. HUME, Will Duplicate Any Prices.

Teeth from one only, to a full set, so cheap that the rich and poor can all CET THEM.

Preservation of the Natural Teeth A SPECIALITY.

YOUNG MEN.

Apply to editor of this newspaper for half mem-bership (at discount), in the Great Mercantile Co'-lege, Keokuk, Iowa, on the Mississippi. Rook-keepers, Pesmen, Reporters, operators and Teach-ers there ignly fitted. Don't fail to address Frot. W. H. MILLER, Kookak, Iowa

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

GO TO For First-Class

WAGONS, FARM

Agricultural Implements

Promptly and Cheaply Executed PLYMOUTH. IND.

We want everybody to Remember

People's Drug Store,

Which is in

Hoham's Block

Laporte street,

-IN THE-City of Plymoutl.

In the County of Marshall, and in the State of Indiana.

1870. 1879. POE & CHAPMAN,

PROPRIETORS. The Farmer and the Laboring Man's Friends.

Nussbaum & Mayer

Wholesale and Retall Dealers in

GROCERIES

PROVISIONS WOOD, WILLOW

CHINA & STONE WARE! We are selling at all times as cheap as any house in Northern Indiana. In connection with the above business, we pay the highest price in Cash for all Kinds of Produce, and make a specialty in Hides, Furs, Pelts, Wool, SEEDS, &c.

CALL ON US at our New Store If you wish 23 Michigan St., Plymouth Ind

Wholesale and Retail.

THE BOSS COUNTER.

CRAWFORD'S City Crockery Store

free, upon receipt of Stamp for post-GILMORE, SMITH & CO.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE GERUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S Celebrated American

WORM SPECIFIC ERMIFUGE

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS. THE countenance is pale and leadencolored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach, occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy; not unfrequently tinged with blood belly swollen and hard; urine turbid respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c. Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist.

DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure. IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant. MIFUGE bears the signatures of C. Mc- law living at Chillicothe, in that State. LANE and FLEMING BROS. on the

--:0:---DR. C. McLANE'S

of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FRVER. No better eathartic can be used preparatory lo, or after taking Quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequaled. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. the impression Dr. McLANE's LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. Mc-LANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh. Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name Melane, spelled differently but same pronunciation. TUTT'S

PHYSICIANS, CLERGYMEN, AND THE AFFLICTED EVERYWHERE. THE GREATEST MEDICAL TRIUMPH OF THE AGE. TUTT'S PILLSI DR. TUTT has suc-

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

INDORSED BY

TUTT'S PILLS CURE DYSPEPSIA. TUTT'S PILLS he digestive organs, egular and healthy ations are pro-TUTT'S PILLS CURE FEVER AND AGUE. fluence of the TUTT'S PILLS CURE BILIOUS COLIC. TUTT'S PILLS Cure KIDNEY Complaint. CURE TORPID LIVER. tem. Sold everywhere, Price 25 cents. TUTT'S PILLS 35 Murray Street, MPART APPETITE. NEW YORK.

ASSIGNEE'S SALE.

19th Day of July, A. D., 1879.

general merchandise known as the of general merchandise known as the Plymouth store, belonging to said trust, for not less than the full aperalsed value. If no bids are secured at that amount, I will then offer said goods to the highest bidder, not to be sold for less than the two-thirds of the appraised value. Said sale will be made at the rooms over Tanner's drug store, in Humrichouser's block, on east side of Michigan street, in said city. If sold upon either of the above propositions, the terms are onehe above propositions, the terms are one-hird cash, one-third in sixty days, one-third in one hundred and twenty days, the cewill then offer said goods at public auction, at retail, to the highest bidder for cash, and continue the sale at such place as I then shall designate, from day to day until all are Frank Swigart, att'y.

It is So.

I've seen many a girl
Who would marry a churl.
Providing he'd plenty of gold,
And would live to repent,
When the money was spent.
When she found that her neart had been sold.
It is so! It is so! You may smile if you like, But it's so!

I've known many a last Who would thoughtlessly pass
Who would thoughtlessly pass
Wh I shours promenading the street,
While her moth a would scrab
All the while at the tub.
Never minding the cold or the heat.
It is so! It is so!

You may smile, if you like, But it's so! There is many a man Who will dress if he can, No matter how empty his purse; And his taller may look, When he settles his book, You may smile, if you like, But it's so!

I know people so nice.
They will faint in a trice,
If you mention hard labor to them;
Yet their parents were poor,
And forced to endure Many hardships life's current to stem.
It is so! It is so!
You may smile, if you like,
But it's so!

There are many ab at,
With a face "long drawn out,"
Who would prate for the harm of a laugh;
Yet they'li cheat all the week, Though on Sunday so meek;
To my mind, they're too prous by half.
It is se! It is so! You may smile, if you like, But it's so!

WILLIAM ALLEN.

How the Sage of Fruit Hill Farm En tered Ohio. [Correspondence New York Times] On a cold, blustering winter day the year 1822, William Allen, a pale, lank boy of sixteen, who had been half educated in the local schools, and who was principally noticeable for his keen blue eyes and long flaxen hair, stood in the streets of Lynchburg, Va. He had determined to leave the town. and to seek his fortune in the distant. but even then thriving State of Ohio The genuine Dr. McLANE'S VER- He bad a half-sister and brother-in-They were his only near relatives then living, and he had made up his mind to go to them How the journey was best to be accomplished by a weak boy, who carried all his fortune upon his back, was the question which engrossed his attention as h stood in the streets of Lynchburg, or that lowering winter day. While he was yet undecided he was appro ched by a young man, roughly clad in the costume of a Kentucky hog drover, then most familiar in Lynchburg which was one of the great pork mar kets of the South. In spite of bi rough appearance, however, ther was a certain open and honest look about the man which at once won strangers to him, and when he asked young Alien to show him where h could buy some good tobacco, the boy, without hesitation, went some what out of his way to do him the service. Going toward the shop where the purchase was to be made, the young drover said that he had on th evening before disposed of al th hogs he had driven from Kentucky.

had been paid his own price for them. and that on the next day he was goasked his companion, who was him self so anxious to make a journey in the same direction. "On, I'm going to tramp it," wa the cool reply.

oot in the middle of winter?" "Yes, indeed. It's much safer than going on horseback, and doesn't cost so much."

Allen, through the corner of his eye, looked at his companion, measured him from head to foot, saw that then said quietly: "I want to cross the mountains into

Will you let me?" The drover stopped for a moment looked at the slim figure beside him. laughed, and exclaimed:

"Oh, you're joking." through firm, thin lips, and looking fearlessly into the eyes of the other, goin'?"

"I will not break down; I will hold up as long as you do and longer." The drover was convinced. He gave the boy his hand on it, and the next morning the pale and cheerless winter saw them, with knapsack and blanket, setting out on this journey across the snow-capped and almost pathless mountains of Virginia. Twenty-eight miles they walked that more set out on their weary tramp. So they went on from point to point, good people who had thus befriended

When they reached a little place then known as Theas s valley, twentyone miles from Gallipolis, the Kentuckian left Allen with many sadlyspoken farewells, and went toward his home, while the boy, with a heavy heart, set out upon his lonely walk of 100 miles to Chillicothe. In his path there were but few settlements, the ings of snow. But in spite of all the difficulties before him, William Allen was not dismayed. With that allovercoming energy and determinamountains, the brave boy walked on. Dense woods surrounded him on every side; often he he heard the cry of some wild beast; his eyelids for moments glued themselves together in sleep, but he came to no habitation; he dared not lie down, for he road goes to Dayton, and if I were floor in his place, and as a Senator knew that if he did he would never you I would sit right here." again see the light of an earthly sun. And still, through all that terrible night he kept on, walking mechanically, passing over the ground more running to Dayton, and in spite of thing to do, to refuse to name a sinlike a machine than a human being, the patient and polite explanations gle instance. I assert here that the When the sunlight came he had his of the conductor, she persisted in not Senator from Delaware declines to reward. His weary eyes were made understanding it. Finally a kind answer, because he cannot name one glad by the sight of the broad Ohio, hearted Hebrew, who was seated op- man whom these committees have pistols and fire-crackers on the and on the further bank the little posite, thinking to relieve the embar- proved to have stolen one dollar. streets. When Americans become town of Gallipolis. Nearing the place, rassment of the woman, offered to And I state further that if the Sena- truly civilized this will be done in all however, he found that his troubles take her ticket and pay her fare to tor from Delaware can be induced by cities. were not yet ended. The river was Richmond, over half the distance to any possibility to venture upon the filled with huge cakes of broken fee Dayton. She accepted, passed her effort to name one man, I will show the pearls slipping off a broken which the swollen current rapidly ticket over to him and he paid her to him that his Democratic commit- string; but a word of kindness is carried down the stream. For this fare to Richmond. Then she quieted tees have squandered more than a young Allen across. All his entreaties were in vain; the man refused to risk his boat among the crushing blocks of ice. There was no help for it. The boy saw that he must wait.

As the day wore on, however, the iceless dangerous, and at last a negro, back." who owned a rickety old boat, agreed for a piece of silver to take Allen to they drew the boat up stream for sev. and I cannot aid you." eral hundred yards, and then, cuibarking, floated down with the blocks shore whenever they could cakes of a particularly dangerous she called him again, and said: appearance, and so at last they reached Gallipolis. Young Allen hastened at ouce to Gates' Tavern, near the river, and while he was taking the hearty meal which had been prepared you back to Indianapolis." for him after the landlord heard of the extent of his journey, he saw a fine looking man in the udiotning ing to set out for his home across the room blacking his own boots. Shortly afterward he was informed that the "And how are you going to travel?" gentleman so engaged was the Hon. Samuel F. Vinton, who had recently been elected to Congress, and who was regarded as the great man of that part of the State. The boy looked at him with mingled feelings "Going to cross the Blue Ridge on of explosity and awe, never for a moment imagining that he would live to serve with Mr. Vinton in Congress.

and to be his rival at the bar of Ohio. Such, however, was the fortune which fate had in store for him. Leaving Gallipolis, thoroughly rested and refreshed, the young travhe was thoroughly in earnest, and eler continued on his journey through Jackson county, All went well with him for several days, but on what startling abruptness:

replied the young traveler, "but I've ter of the long drowned out mines day, and spent the night in the little as readily accepted—the people of the Bonanza mines, Best & Belcher town of Liberty. On the night of the Ohlo were not so suspicious of each and Gould & Curry will not be turned second day they reached the foot of other in those days as they have be- in for a couple of weeks, and after all Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned, assigned Ridge, and on the morning of the foot-sore wanderer was safely housed pested that one of the double line of third day commenced the ascent. For in a rude but well warmed log cabin, boxes will have ample capacity to nine hours they pushed on, dragging containing two rooms, and giving carry all the water. As an engineerthemselves painfully through snow- shelter to a man and his wife, two ing work the success surpasses all exdrifts and over-fallen trees. Then daughters and four sons. All the pectations. the strong Kentuckian fell exhausted boys subsequently became Allen's by the wayside. Young Allen, whose warm political supporters. That An American writer from Spain to enable them to get away from the pass at cheap rates. It is estimated indomitable will still kept him on his night they gave him the best supper urges the shipment of labor saving place where they are oppressed and that this decision will cost the govblistered and burning feet, made a they could command, and in the outer implements there. Spanish farmers their civil rights denied. The plant- ernment $200,000 annually. great fire of the dry wood which he room shared their heap of straw with plow with the end of a piece of wood ers appeal to the Northern people to was fortunate to find in a mountain him. In the inside apartment the about five inches thick, as was done withhold the aid the freemen need. nook, fed his companion and himself father and mother and their two in the middle ages; sowing and Which appeal shall we heed?" with the coarse fare he had provided daughters spent the night upon heaps reaping machines are unknown, and at the foot of the mountain, and then of straw. It will be remembered that grain is not threshed. Oxen tread it

In the morning, after breakfast, the encountering no great danger, but Allen still further aided him by the Thursday, senator Saulsbury having overcoming many difficulties by the loan of a horse, upon which, without made reference to the corruptions of in all parts of the State. further adventure, he rode into Chil-

A COMPLICATED CASE.

of the Panhandle, was leaving the have stolen one dollar from this govcity on his trip east, he found a fe- ern nent. He failed to do so at tha male passenger who had a ticket to time; he has had three years to think country was bare and desolate, the Dayton via. C. H. & D. He explained it over; I repeat the question." To that she was on the wrong train, that which Senator Saul bury repeated entirely blotted out with thick cover- her ticket was not go d, and that she his general charge of corruption, could leave the train at Irvington and when Senator Windom sald: "Now, wait for the train on the other road, Mr. President, the Democratic party or he would send her back to the have had control of the House of Union Depot, where she could await Representatives for four years; it had tion to succeed which in the years the train on the line over which she during one Congress thirty-three tention in California, for the climate that followed made him a chief man was ticketed. The woman seemed committees in the field investigating is particularly favorable to its in a great nation, fresh obstacles only to understand the explanation, but, every conceivable thing; it had to growth. It yields enormously. nerved him to fresh trial. All night as soon as Minot had left her, an old back it all the money of the Treasury, Jarolimek maintains that steel car lady occupying the seat in front of for nobody withheld appropriation ; be hardened no only by immersion car, when she asked:

the fare to Richmond?"

was the reply. .

the other side. With much difficulty your fare has been paid to Richmond, not answer, Then she went for the Hebrew, ac- to the would Democratic side of the cused him of being a swindler, and Senate, the only response elicited

> I can get my ticket, and I will leave and in the last, the whisky frauds, it this road, which is run by swindlers." is susceptible of proof that a majority the conductor asked her to get off. ier auswer. "Then you must pay your fare."

"Pay my fare, you swindler! Why.

I can prove by every one in the car

He then g . ve the money back, and that you said my fair was paid." "Of course I did, but I gave the money back." "Yes, you gave it to the Jew. You don't pretend that you gave it to me. You want to rob me, but I won't al low it. I am on this train to go to Richmond, and I intend to doit," and she did. Minot is consulting a law-

The Satro Tunnel.

yer on the case .- Indianapolis Jour-

Ohio. I would like to go with you. proved to be the last night of his day and night, and the expenditure that his administration is so far one wanderings he became very lame of $6 000,000, the Sutro tunnel is com- of the purest the government has has furnished spars and masts for from over exertion. His feet, too, pleted. The powerful engines of the ever enjoyed. In view of the utter 500 vessels; he has not been ill for were badly cut and blistered, and he combination shaft of the Hale & Nor- failure of these thirty-three commitwas scarcely able to drag himself cross and Savage mines were started ties to disclose any frauds or defalca- day and night for two days at a timealong, when suddenly a young man, up yesterday morning at precisely tions, is it not about time the politi-"No; I am in earnest. I must c oss two or three years older than himself, six o'clock, discharging their water clans and newspapers who are howlthe mountains, no matter how I go." came out of a wood into the road in into the Sutro tunnel, at the mouth ing and charging upon the Republi-"You would break down the first front of him, and said, with rather of which it made its appearance in cans the Republicans fraud and corone hour and twenty minutes, show- ruption should be set down as com-"Hello, stranger, where be you ing a temperature at first of 101 de- mon liars and defamers?-Indianapgrees, which gradually increased to olis Journal. "I'm trying to get to Chillicothe," 118 degrees. In eight hours the wafallen lame and am not getting on was lowered 100 feet. Everything worked to a charm. The wooden "If that is so," said the other, with boxes constructed of three-inch the rough and ready hospitality of tongue-and-grooved Neyala pine did the time and country, "you had bet- not show a leak, and not even a partiter go home and stay the night out cle of steam escaped from them, so with our folks. They don't often see that the tunnel, after the hot water strange ones, and they'll like to hear was turned in, showed barely an increase of temperature. The water The invitation so readily given was from the Sierra Nevada, Union, O, hir,

An Honest Administration

In the debate in the Senate on last the R -publican party, Senator Windom said: "Three years ago I had the honor to ask the Senator from Delaware to name a single individual The Troubles of an Obliging Conductor a single Republican official, whom With an Obstinate Lady Passenger. the thirty-three Democratic investi-The other day as Conductor Minot, gating committees had proven to "These railroads are collogued to- ends of the earth to testify to Repubgether, and their tickets are good on lican corruption. In view of all these any ro d. That is just a trick of the facts and in view of the fact that the conductor to get money out of you honorable Senator from Delaware in that State, with a stone wall. and steal it from the company. This has to day again reiterated upon this Seven miles of the wall have been and upon his official responsibility, When Minot returned, the woman as I take it, that millions have been could not be made to understand why stolen by Republican officials, I ask her ticket was not good on any road him if it is quite fair, if it is quite the reason the ferrymen refused to take down until Minot came through the thousand dollars for every dollar they which, even when dropped by have proved to have been stolen by "Isn't that ticket worth more than any Republican official. I make that challenge in my place. I challenge "Certainly; worth a third more," the Senator from Delaware to answer If he can. If he cannot: if he insists "Well, I sin't goln' to be swindled upon keeping his sent without atcakes in the river became thinner and in that way, and I want my ticket tempting a reply, I imist that the country will answer that the Senator "I have nothing to do with that," from Delaware has been drawing upreplied Minot, "you sold your ticket; on his imagination, and that he can-of ice, rowing toward the opposite he flually told her that all he wanted was in reference to the San Domingo. slip was his money; and she could have the credit Mobilier, the Belknap and through and avoid a colision with her ticket. Minot came back and the whisky frauds. In the first three named transactions, it is not claimed Give that man his money back so, that the government lost one dollar, 'Upon your agreement to leave the of the men engaged in them were train I wil. do it," said he, "and send Democrats, and that all the men en gaged in ferretting them out and prosecuting them were Republicans. the ficket was returned. Presently The Republicans ought not to be the train stopped at Cumberland, and held responsible for the frauds committed by Democrats upon revenue "I have changed my mind," was laws, whether by Mr. Tilden in fraudulent income returns, or by the whisky distillers of the West. We have then the challenge of Senator Windom remaining unanswered That while the Democratic Congress has put thirty-three smelling committies at work, and expended a million of dollars under the pretense of disclosing fraud, yet not one solltary item of corruption has been brought the men who have been pursuing him them, everything. After ten years' ceaseless labor, from the day he was inaugurated > secured the removal of the debtor? But if this may be done with Egypt exodus question in this way: "Two banking and insurance institutions, appeals come from the South. The as it will permit that class of blanks freedmen appeal for transportation which contain little or no writing to Bull's Baby Syrup, Price 25 cents.

Items of Interest. The negroes of Mississippi are said to be working with unusual energy Forty bushels of wheat to the acre is about the average of the present splendid crop in Georgia. It is said that Mississippi furmers are thinking of going into the corp and cattle trade and leaving cotton

On the 1st of July, 1878, there was $256,000,000 cash in the treasury; now there is $353,000,000. Resump-le an accomplished fact. Less wheat, but three times the area of corn, and twice of oats, has been planted and sown in Colorado this year, compared with last, Egyptian wheat is attracting at-it could summon witne ses from the in boiling water, but even in boiling oil, melting lead and melting zinc. Senator Gordon, of Georgia, Is enclosing his 40,000 acre sheep ranch,

The immigration statistics at Castle Garden show 55 285 fmmigrants landed during the first six months of 1879, an increase of 17,356 over the same period in 1878, In Cincinnati the police have been ordered to stop the shooting of seldom spoken in vain. It is a seed chance, springs up as a flower. The cotton crop is to be 7 per cent. larger this year than last according to estimate. The average yearly increase for the past nine years has been 100,000 bales. Total bales for this year are estimated at 5,150,000. The great magnate of South Wales la Sir Watkin William Wynn, who owns 90,000 acres in the principality. He is a member of Parliament for To this broad challenge, extended Denbighshire, as was his father from the age of 24 to his death, at an ad-

> The Emperor of China is the shortest Monarch to the world and the Emperor of Germany the tallest, though even be can boast of seventy-two tookes. while his nephey, Prince Adalbert, stands six feet and six inches in his James C. Flood draws $92,500 from the National Treasury four times a year, that sum being the quarterly interest on $5,000,000 invested in 5 per cents. It is said, moreover, that he recently has put another $5,000 .. 000 in four per cents. The apportionment under the next consus on a basis of 300 members of congress and a population of 50,000-000, will give the north 2:3 members and the south 87. The sectional question and the "solidity" question will soon cease from troubling. The way to wealth is as blain as the way to market. It depends to the door of the present administra- chiefly on two words, industry and tion, No higher eulogy could be frugality; that is, waste neither timepronounced upon President Hayes normoney, but make the best use of and his administration. It is estab. both. Without industry and frugallished by the records and evidence of ty nothing will do well, and with

> James Marrabee, of Stark, N. H. . veteran woodsman of 86 years old

A newspaper of January 8, 1821, mance by the postmaster of Leismore, Ireland, then in his alnetyseventh year. He traveled for a The Khedive of Egypt has been wager from that town to Fermoy, in deposed. The deposition is the re- a Dungarven oyster-tub, drawn by a sult of the immense debt piled up by pig, a badger, two cats, a goese and that ruler. The money was borrow. a hedgehog, with a large, red nighted principally from England and cap on his head, a pig-driver's white France for the carrying out of great in one of his hands, and in the other projects in which those countries a common cow's horn, which he blew ere interested. The creditors have to encourage his team and give notice of his new mode of posting.

An important decision has been why not with Turkey. If indebtness rendered by the Postoffice Departis to cause the partition of kingdoms ment which causes a large decrease and the knocking down of old and in the postal revenue. It is that the putting up of new dynasties, it under an old law a very large amount will be a better and cheaper way of mail matter heretofore considered of first class will in the future be regarded as third-class matter. This The Boston Traveler touches the ruling will especially benefit the

Mrs. Partington Says

Which appeal shall we heed?"

Don't take any of the quack rostrums, as they are regimental to the human system; but put your trust in Hop Bitters, which having done all he could do, he went this was before Ohio claimed to be out, and it is winnowed by women, the usual pains and ills of the young Isanc from a sewere extract of tripod william Rosenthall.

The night passed quietly, who toss it into the air to seatter the ones soon vanish after the use of Dr. fever. They are the ne plus unem of Bull's Raby Syrup. Price 25 cents.